Follow mm on Instagram: @mommy_mermaid Inside: If you're headed to Disneyland or Disney World, you'll love to learn how to save some money by creating your own DIY Disney autograph book. This post contains affiliate links to your convenience. Mine completely you can read it here. All of them visit the happiest place on Earth. But Mom and Dad don't usually want it to cost an arm and a leg. So when you start planning your visit, learn all the secret ways to save money while going to a Disney park. One way to save a few extra dollars is to create your own Disney autograph book. It's super simple, almost free and your kids will love them! DIY Disney Autograph Book Free Printers How to make your own Disney autograph book With these free Disney autograph sites that can be printed, there are several different ways you can create your own autograph book. The Last-Minutes Mom's Way The simplest and fastest way to make an autograph book is to grab a little photo album like this one. Then simply print the pages, reduce to size and slip the pages inside the sleeves. After the visit, you can also add photos of your children with characters and create a mini scrapbook that they can keep in their room. Scrapbooking Mom's Way Another way to make them is to create your own flip book. To create a durable one, you'll need the following supplies: Here's how to compile a Disney autograph book: Print all disney autograph pages. Optional: Beautify every page you want with stickers, photos, etc. Just be sure that the decorations are not too stinky because you will need laminate this site. Laminate every page. Cut each 4x6 autograph page. Drill holes two holes on the left side of each 4x6 page. Use two book rings to merge all the pages. Using the ribbon, tie one side to Sharpie's advice, and the other to one of the rings of the book. (Believe me: you won't want to mess around for a pen when it's your turn to get an autograph!) The Planning Mom's Way The last way to create your own DIY Disney autograph book is to print a spiral-bound book. You can create a durable, time-consuming flipbook through Walmart here. All you have to do is upload the autograph pages (use jpegove in the file, not the PDF), sort your images, and then print them and send them to your home. One downside is that you can only use 20 photos, so you won't be able to print all 28 pages. However you decide to make an autograph book, I'm sure your kids will love it! More printables Kids will love: More Disney visit must haves: Going on a Disney vacation is such a magical experience for families. Especially the kids. One of the fun things for kids on Disney Vacation (whether at Disney Land, Disney World or even Disney Cruise) is getting to know your favorite Disney characters. You can make the experience even more magical for your children by helping them gather signatures from these favorite characters in Disney's autograph book after meeting each one. Can you imagine your cute kids telling friends and family about their recent Disney vacation and being able to pull out their personal autograph book to show who they met? And this is Cinderella's. And this is Rapunzel's... I love this Disney autograph book that can be printed that I designed with my husband. Husband. Our kids used on our next Disney vacation and I just had to share. This way, you can also use it on your next Disney vacation! My husband designed the book to be a quarter of a page to make it more suitable for your children. Although the pages are filled with silhouettes of various Disney characters for a cool look, you can have every character character you want. This download is a standard PDF file that is ready to be printed at home or in local copying. While the cover of this Disney autograph color book site are designed in black and white for convenience. If you want to make it more colorful and fun I suggest printing pages of an autograph book on brightly colored paper. Printable device makes 2 books. Click Here to get a free Disney autograph book to print when I saw the finished print I like, but I told my husband I wanted to take it to the next level using my Cricut Maker to create a custom faux leather cover. So he designed the SVG file to make the cover and I was right it looked amazing! When I made the books I made 2 (since printing makes two books) I made one with a cover of Blue Faux Leather and Silver Foil Iron-on, and I made the other in a reddish brown cover with a gold Iron-on to see what I liked best. For those who have a Cricut machine and want to make a DIY cover out of artificial leather for this printable autograph book, I put step-by-step instructions below: This DIY tutorial is to make your own beautiful leather (and foil iron-on) covers to go with our free printable Disney autograph book. Download free SVG Cut files for disney autograph book -- & HERE upload file to design space. The size should be 8.4x5.5Ungroup (move the lid part over) Choose all the design details and fasten. (so cricut cuts them in the desired layout) Select everything and copy (by changing the color of the second cover to blue and details to silver) Here you can remove any part of the design that you do not want to include. Click make it button & Reverse image on the iron-on decalsSelect Foil Iron-on as the material and place Silver Iron-on on a standard mat shiny side down. After cutting, use the descent tool to pour the excess iron onrepeat for the Goil Foil Design Change material on a regular iron-on, make sure you have a fine point blade in the tool holder and place a shiny side down on the standard holder mat. After cutting, use the tool to remove excess iron onSelect Artificial leather from the material, Put the Deep Cut Blade in the tool holder and place the Blue Artificial Skin on strong grip MatAfter cutting remove from the mat, then repeat for Brownish Red Faux LeatherHeat your Easypress 2 to 255 & Press artificial skin (on easypress mats) for 5 seconds to warm it up. Place the iron-on design on artificial skin, then press with a slight push of 30 Faux Leather cover on print sheets with staples in the middle. The hardest part of making these blankets is to plant the plant Iron-on Design so take your time. If you still have problems weeding fine design I recommend using Cricut Brightpad to better see the design of the cut. You can also use the standard Gold everyday Iron-on instead of Gold Foil Iron-on (which is a little easier for weed and still looks great)For those who don't have Cricut to make these amazing DIY covers Free Printable comes with a printable version of the covers. Whether you're just using free printing or going the extra mile to make a custom faux leather blanket, I hope you enjoy this Disney autograph book for your kids on your next Disney vacation.
